Authoring Agent:	SA Allison Fletcher

Narrative:

On Saturday, August 1, 2026, at approximately 0025 hours, Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) Special Agent (SA) Daniel Boerner (Boerner) conducted an audio recorded interview with [redacted] at the Willoughby Police Department (WPD) located at 36700 Euclid Avenue in Willoughby, Ohio. [redacted] was identified as the girlfriend of the involved subject, Jason Green (Green), who died as a result of his injuries during the officer-involved shooting that occurred on July 31, 2026, at 5193 Robinhood Drive in Willoughby, Ohio. Also present during the interview was [redacted] who was a police officer with the Wickliffe Police Department.

[redacted] was the victim of a domestic violence incident involving Green prior to the officer-involved critical incident. She also witnessed the shooting incident and recorded the encounter between Green and WPD officers on her personal cellphone.

There are two audio recordings of the interview with [redacted]. The first recording was approximately 7 minutes and 47 seconds in length. The digital recorder utilized during the interview malfunctioned. The second recording was approximately 24 minutes and 53 seconds in length.

Time references made will refer to the elapsed time in the second audio recording.

The following is a summary of the information deemed by the author to be of the most relevance to the investigation and does not purport to contain all questions and answers from the interview. The information was placed in a chronology to aid the reader's overall understanding of the information elicited during the interview and may not be reflective of the actual sequencing of questions. It is suggested that the full recording be reviewed to clarify any content or contextual questions regarding the information from the interview.

Throughout the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

At approximately 2130 hours, [redacted] and Green were having a verbal dispute that she described as "blown out of proportion." During the argument, [redacted] told Green that she was going to contact the police, however she never did. She eventually chose to separate herself from Green and went upstairs for a short time. When she returned downstairs, [redacted] passed by Green who was standing near the base of the stairs and went into the kitchen. [redacted] walked towards the kitchen sink and turned her back to Green. Moments later Green had a knife to her throat and was yelling/cursing at her [01:10].

Green eventually walked away from [redacted]. She believed he had contacted the police because approximately five minutes after the kitchen incident, two uniformed officers knocked on her front door. When [redacted] opened the door, one of the officers was standing in front of the front door and the other officer was in the front yard looking through the front window of the house. Green was sitting on the couch holding a knife in his hand.

[redacted] notified officers that there were no firearms in the house and only a dog. Officers then requested [redacted] come outside and walk towards the neighbor's house to a safe location.

[redacted] recalled the officer in the doorway giving Green numerous commands to "put the knife down" and attempting to de-escalate the situation. Green did not comply. Green eventually exited the house to the front porch with the knife in his hand. Officers had backed away from the front door/porch and were standing in the front yard continuing to give commands for Green to drop the knife.

While Green was standing on the front porch, she recalled hearing Green tell officers "he wasn't going to make it through the night" [12:07].

Green then re-entered the house and came back outside with a larger knife. [redacted] recalled him holding the knife in his right hand. Green then began walking towards officers in the front yard. Green eventually walked towards the driveway continuing to approach officers at a steady pace. Officers were backing away from Green and continuously giving him commands to "drop the knife" [03:03].

While Green was in the driveway of the residence, officers had backed up towards the neighbor's house (5201 Robinhood Drive). Officers then deployed a taser causing Green to fall to the ground. After the taser was used, Green got back up with the knife (possibly knives) in his hands and continued to approach officers. At that time officers fired three[1] times at Green causing him to fall to the ground on his stomach in the front yard of 5201 Robinhood Drive.

After Green was shot, officers immediately began rendering aid. [redacted] recalled seeing blood on Green's stomach.

[redacted] began recording the encounter on her cellphone moments after Green was tased by officers. She was standing across the street from the incident and the shooting incident was captured in the recording.

Prior to the domestic incident, [redacted] picked Green up from his residence on "Vineyard" and drove them to [redacted] Robinhood Drive. When they arrived, Green left to go grocery shopping for dinner and [redacted] began cleaning the house.

When Green returned, he began grilling food for dinner. [redacted] and Green then began "bickering" like "any other couple." The argument began because [redacted] was upset that Green did not have a job and had lost his apartment the year prior. The "bickering" then escalated and Green began making statements that "he wasn't going to make it through the night" [05:49]. [redacted] was unsure if Green continued to say this to officers while outside.

While they were having their argument, [redacted] texted Green's brother-in-law (prior to police arrival) that he (the brother-in-law) needed to come pick Green up (Figure 1). [redacted] then received a text message from Tiffany Green (girlfriend of brother-in-law) that "Bobby" was on his way (Figure 2).

[redacted] described Green's behavior during the domestic incident as "abnormal". In her text messages to the brother-in-law, she told him that the matter was "urgent" and she would not have texted him unless she "had to" [05:49].

During past verbal arguments with Green, [redacted] recalled him making suicidal statements, however, [redacted] described Green's comments as "crying wolf" because he never "followed through" with his statements of suicidality [05:49].

Green had never assaulted her with a knife before as he had done on that evening. Typically, their fights remained verbal. On the night of the shooting incident, Green was acting out of character.

After the shooting incident [redacted] received care from the Willoughby Fire Department paramedics who had responded to the scene for Green. [redacted] was not transported to the hospital and received care for her superficial cut to the left side of her neck/chest (Figure 3).

[1] [redacted] recalled hearing three gunshots, however, it was learned that officers fired four times (two from each officer).

At the conclusion of the interview, SA Boerner took photos of the injury to [redacted]'s neck. He also received screen shots from [redacted] from the text messages she sent and received related to the incident (see below).
