2026-2933
Officer Involved Critical Incident - 5193 Robinhood Drive, Willoughby, Ohio 44094 Lake County (L)

Investigative Activity:	Prosecutor's Decision Letter
Involves:	Lake County Prosecutor's Office (O)
Activity Date:	11/13/2026
Activity Location:	BCI - Richfield
Authoring Agent:	SA Allison Fletcher

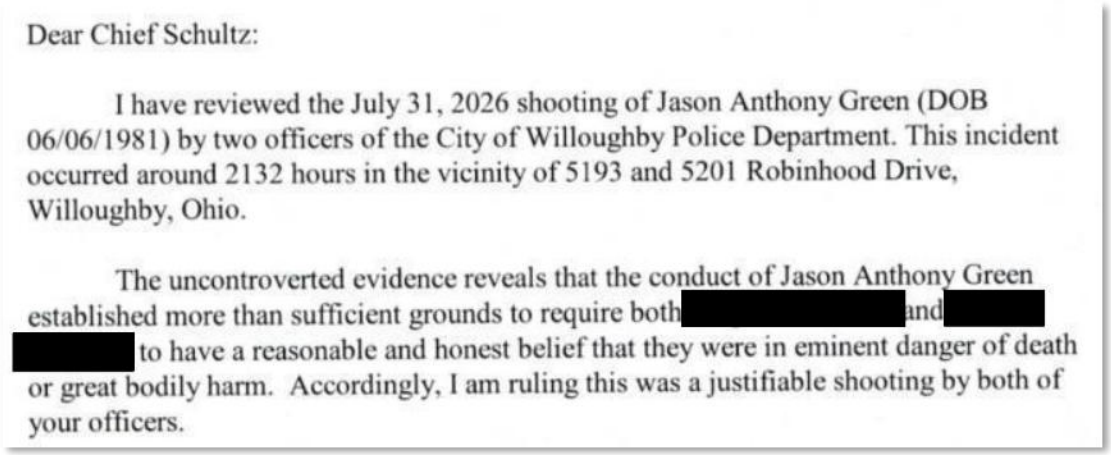
Narrative:

On Friday, November 13, 2026, Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) Special Agent (SA) Allison Fletcher (Fletcher) received an email from the Lake County Prosecutor's Office. The email included a letter from the Prosecutor related to the officer-involved critical incident that occurred on July 31, 2026, in Willoughby, Lake County, Ohio, and involved two officers from the Willoughby Police Department (WPD). The letter contained details of Lake County Prosecutor Charles Coulson's ruling that the officer-involved shooting was justified.

Below is a screenshot of the body of the letter authored by Prosecutor Coulson.



Dear Chief Schultz:

I have reviewed the July 31, 2026 shooting of Jason Anthony Green (DOB 06/06/1981) by two officers of the City of Willoughby Police Department. This incident occurred around 2132 hours in the vicinity of 5193 and 5201 Robinhood Drive, Willoughby, Ohio.

The uncontroverted evidence reveals that the conduct of Jason Anthony Green established more than sufficient grounds to require both [redacted] and [redacted] to have a reasonable and honest belief that they were in eminent danger of death or great bodily harm. Accordingly, I am ruling this was a justifiable shooting by both of your officers.

The letter received from the Lake County Prosecutor's Office and the corresponding email have been attached to this report.
