Narrative:

On Monday, December 26, 2022, at about 1434 hours, Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) Special Agent (SA) Chuck Moran (Moran) and SA Todd Clark interviewed Sherry McCrossin (McCrossin) at Pamela Stratford's (Stratford) residence. McCrossin was the involved subject's, Zachary Zoran (Zoran), aunt. The interview was not audio recorded due to the audio recorder stopping for an unknown reason(s) during the previous interview with Stratford.

McCrossin said she resides at 518 Magnolia Street, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. McCrossin said she received messages from Zoran through Facebook Messenger on December 25, 2022. There were text messages and voice messages received from Zoran and multiple messages occurred during the evening hours.

McCrossin said Zoran sent messages to her daughter, Emily Austin (Emily), "apologizing." McCrossin believed that Zoran was still "high" when he sent the messages. Zoran also sent photos through Facebook Messenger. Zoran made threats about harming McCrossin and said he would "video tape" it. McCrossin said Zoran was acting "crazy." Zoran messaged and claimed that he broke his left hand when he punched "Papa Mick" in the face. McCrossin said "Papa Mick" was the person who owned the "sober house" where Zoran resided (likely at 921 Nathan Street, Akron, Ohio).

McCrossin said she made a police report with the Cuyahoga Falls Police Department (CFPD) and spoke with Detective Hudak.

McCrossin used her cell phone to "AirDrop" 11 photos and three screen recording videos to SA Moran's work cell phone. SA Moran reviewed the photos and screen recordings and noted the following:

- There were photos of Zoran.
- There was a photo of the back of a person's head and Zoran said he "beat" the "elderly" person's "ass."

He said he was on the porch and by the "door." He yelled for someone to bring his son to the door or he would "pick the lock" and go upstairs with a gun and start shooting people. He said he was a "Hell's Angel" and he would kill people if anything happened to his son. Zoran knocked on an object and began speaking and asking if his son was there and his son was not brought to the door. He said he "heard" his son upstairs and he would "murder" everyone involved with his son. He said he would put a gun to someone's head and "crucify" them. He said he would "torture" people and "cut their skin off" and make them put it in their "mouth."

Zoran said his "bikers" would "murder" her. Zoran said he broke his "left hand" and went to the hospital last night and was "high on meth." Zoran said he punched "Papa Mick" in the face. Zoran said he had a "murder room" and warned McCrossin to be careful when she started her car. Zoran began referring to McCrossin as "Aunt Shelly" and he was "coming for" her. He said he would change his appearance and would "murder anybody involved" with his son.
- There was a one minute and five seconds long (1:05) screen recording of the messages Zoran sent to McCrossin. Zoran told McCrossin that he had a "murder room" and people would have to put body parts on the glass.
