IDEAS IN MOTION

Fighting the Drug Epidemic in Ohio

Sessions

■ Session 1: Prevention Education in Schools and Communities

Moderator: Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine

Sanctuary

This session will review the recommendations of the Ohio Joint Study Committee on Drug Use Prevention Education. The group's report offers a plan to incorporate drug education in all grade levels. To showcase the importance of drug education, school officials and law enforcement officers will share how they are working to change the culture of drug misuse in their communities.

Panelists:

Mary Haag, president and CEO, Prevention First!

Paul Imhoff, superintendent, Upper Arlington City Schools

Chris Scott, chairman, Ross County Drug Free Clubs of America

Sam Blank, D.A.R.E. Officer

Erin Peachey, school resource officer, Westerville Police Department

Amy Macechko, health and wellness coordinator, Talawanda School District

Desiree Powell, director of Academic Electives and Wellness, Cleveland Metropolitan School District

■ Session 2: Coalition Work

Moderator: Jennifer Biddinger, Ohio Attorney General's Office

Sanctuary

Coalitions from throughout Ohio are working together to help stop overdose deaths, prevent substance abuse, help addicts recover, and reunite families. This session will focus on the work of the coalitions and highlight the new approaches being taken by the medical, faith-based, and business communities.

Panelists:

Angy Shaferly, executive director, Anhedonia

Pastor Jerry O'Brien, senior pastor, Faith Harvest Fellowship

Sheriff Russ Martin, Delaware County Sheriff's Office

Jerry Craig, executive director, ADM Board of Summit County

Karen Pierce, managing director, Working Partners Systems

Mollie Hedges, member, Pickaway County Action Coalition

■ Session 3: The Impact of Trauma

Keynote: Kim Kehl, Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services

Sanctuary

As the drug epidemic continues, the consequences of prolonged exposure to trauma are manifesting in families, in classrooms, among first responders, and in the criminal justice system. In this session, a guest speaker will talk about the impact of trauma and discuss the principles of trauma-informed approaches to healing and care.

Fighting the Drug Epidemic in Ohio

Sessions

■ Lunch and Networking

Video Presentation: The Impact of One
Fellowship Hall

Each one of us can make a difference in this opiate epidemic. It doesn't take a lot of money or a huge workforce, just the will to be part of the solution. We'll show you how the impact of one is saving lives in one community. We hope you'll think about the ideas discussed today and how even one person — perhaps you — could adapt them to fit your your agency.

■ Session 4: Criminal Justice

Robert Fiatal, Ohio Attorney General's Office
Sanctuary

As heroin and fentanyl deaths continue to increase, law enforcement agencies are working with treatment providers, the medical community, and others to respond. This session will cover how these partnerships were developed, lessons learned along the way, and how the work is making a difference.

Panelists:

Det. Scott Moran, Cleveland Division of Police
Chief Deputy Rick Miner, Franklin County Sheriff's Office HOPE Task Force
Lt. Gabriel Carpenter, jail administrator, Pickaway County Sheriff's Office
Dennis Lowe, commander, Fairfield-Hocking-Athens Major Crimes Unit
Judge Fred Moses, Hocking County Municipal Court
Margaret Scott, deputy chief assistant prosecutor, Summit County Prosecutor's Office

■ Session 5: Continuum of Care

Amy O'Grady, Ohio Attorney General's Office
Sanctuary

Each county in Ohio has been tasked with developing a Continuum of Care Plan to address how individuals with substance-use disorder can get help — from detox to recovery. This session will help communities by offering ideas, tools, and resources to establish a plan.

Panelists:

Assistant Fire Chief James Davis, Columbus Division of Fire
Brad DeCamp, executive director, Crawford and Marion Counties Board of ADAMHS
Kim Fraser, executive director, Lake County ADAMHS Board
Susan Porterfield Prentice, executive director, Genesis on the Lake
Cheri Walter, CEO, Ohio Association of County Behavioral Health Authorities
Carolynn Ireland, executive director, House of Hope Inc.

Thank You
