

2015 National Missing Children's Day Poster Contest Ohio's 2nd Place Winner

Treston Iguchi is a 5th grader and he is home schooled in Grove City, Ohio. His teacher is Ms. Tami Iguchi.

When asked about his poster, he said "Ever since second grade, I've been writing and drawing in black and white. So I wanted to make my poster more colorful. I couldn't think of a lot but I did my best. There are rainbows, flags and planets everywhere. I think it's cool."

When asked to give a brief description of himself, Treston replied:

"My name is Treston, I'm from Ohio and I'm 11 years old. Ever since I was two, I've always loved drawing and coloring. I use to draw piles and piles of pictures of Vegi Tales characters when I was three. But now I draw everything from animals to super heroes. I like drawing Battles and making my own super heroes. I wish I could do this every year, but I can't. I am thankful and I've had lots of fun in the process."
