

2015 National Missing Children's Day Poster Contest Ohio's Winner

Caroline Fleming is a 5th grader and is home schooled in Grove City, Ohio. Her teacher is her mother, Mrs. Janet Fleming.

When asked about her poster and why she created it, she said "I really want to help kids. And when my mom showed me the poster contest, I wanted to do it. After all, if I didn't have a home, wouldn't I want help? It would be really scary to be taken!"

Caroline was asked to tell a little about herself:

"I like art and fictional writing. I also enjoy reading, climbing and naturally anything outside. I'm homeschooled and am proud of it."
