PREFACE

This volume inaugurates the advance Sheet Service for Opinions of the Attorney General of Ohio. Beginning with this volume, the Opinions of the Attorney General will be published quarterly throughout the year, with the file of opinions, tables of Ohio Constitution and Revised Code provisions construed, and the index cumulated each quarter. By means of this service, the Opinions of the Attorney General of Ohio will be available in an easy to use form at the time when they are of the greatest value to the public officials and other interested parties in Ohio.

A new numbering system for the Opinions begins with 1965. Hereafter, the Opinions will be numbered with a prefix designating the year in which the Opinion was rendered, followed by a number designating the specific opinion. Thus, Opinion No. 65-1 designates Opinion No. 1 for the year 1965. This new system will avoid some of the confusion inherent in the previous system of numbering Opinions of the Attorney General. Users of this service will note that certain Opinions are not reproduced in this service. The deleted Opinions are those formerly designated as "informal opinions." These are opinions that, by the nature of the isolated factual situations involved, are not of general interest. The reproduction of these would serve no useful purpose to users of this publication and would tend to increase the charge the publisher would find necessary to make for the service. All opinions of general interest are reproduced herein.

This service is a cooperative project of the publisher and the Office of the Attorney General of Ohio. Both parties invite constructive criticism of this service, subject of course to fiscal and administrative practicability, to the end that it may be improved in practicability and workability. Any constructive criticism tending to increase the usefulness of this publication will certainly be welcomed by both this office and by the publisher.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS

109.23. Definition of charitable trust; application.

As used in sections 109.23 to 109.33, inclusive, of the Revised Code, "charitable trust" means any fiduciary relationship with respect to property arising as a result of a manifestation of intention to create it, and subjecting the partnership, corporation, person, or association of persons by whom the property is held to equitable duties to deal with the property for any charitable, religious or educational purpose. There are excluded from this definition and from the operation of such sections, trusts until such time as the charitable, religious or educational purpose expressed in such trust becomes vested in use or enjoyment. Such sections do not apply to charitable, religious and educational institutions holding funds in trust or otherwise exclusively for their own purposes nor to institutions created and operated as agencies of the state government or any political subdivision thereof. (125 v 351. Eff. 10-14-53.)

Note: In addition to those types of charitable trusts with registration requirements previously recognized, registration will be required of all charitable corporations operating in this state which have been or will be filing Forms 990A with the Internal Revenue Service. Interpretation of Att General, March 30, 1960, reported at 33 Ohio Bar 502.

Compatible and Incompatible Offices

Note: The following table, in two parts, lists Compatible Offices and Incompatible Offices, as determined in Opinions of the Attorney General issued during the year 1965.

TABLES

Offices and positions are considered incompatible when one is subordinate to the other or is a check upon the other. Also, positions may be deemed incompatible when it is physically impossible for one person to discharge the duties of both offices (State, ex rel Attorney General v Gebert, 12 CC (NS) 274).

There are several constitutional and statutory provisions affecting the compatibility of offices, as follows:
