Missing Person - Age Progression

July 13, 2018

The Ohio Attorney General's Bureau of Criminal Investigation and Zanesville Police Department are seeking assistance to help locate missing person Barbara Frame. Barbara has been missing since January 30, 1985. She left her home and stated she would return to cook dinner, but never returned. Her car was found abandoned the next day on Linden Avenue in Zanesville, Ohio. She was last seen wearing long pants, a coat, and tennis shoes.

The image shown is an age-progressed image of what Barbara may look like now, completed by an Ohio BCI forensic artist. Anyone with information is asked to call Ohio BCI's Criminal Intelligence Unit at 740-845-2406.
