Missing Person - Age Progression

May 13, 2021

Volume 17, Number 5

The Ohio Attorney General’s Bureau of Criminal Investigation and Portsmouth Police Department are seeking assistance to help locate missing person Megan Lancaster. Megan has been missing since April 3, 2013. Her car was found abandoned on April 5, 2013 at a fast food restaurant in Portsmouth, OH. She has a birthmark on her abdomen and a tattoo of colorful angel wings with “Rhys” in cursive writing on her right shoulder.

The image shown is an age-progressed image of what Megan may look like now, completed by an Ohio BCI forensic artist. Anyone with information is asked to call the Portsmouth Police Department at (740) 353-4101.
