
2025 OHIO DISTINGUISHED LAW ENFORCEMENT AWARDS

Nomination forms for:

Civilian Leadership, Training, Community Service, Blue Line, Group Achievement, Lifetime Achievement, Exemplary Response and Valor awards

DAVE YOST
OHIO ATTORNEY GENERAL

DAVE YOST

Dear Colleague,

In keeping with conference tradition, the Attorney General will again present the Ohio Distinguished Law Enforcement Awards during the 2025 Law Enforcement Training Symposium this coming fall on Tuesday, September 30 at the Kalahari Resorts & Conventions in Sandusky, OH. This upbeat and inspiring occasion is one you won't want to miss.

With so much committed police work going on statewide, we need your help to ensure that the most deserving candidates are properly recognized. To that end, we have enclosed nomination forms for the 2025 awards and ask for your submissions in these eight categories:

- Victoria Allen Civilian Leadership
- Training
- Community Service
- Blue Line (for innovation and creativity)
- Group Achievement
- Lifetime Achievement
- Exemplary Response (new this year)
- Valor

Six of these awards honor the outstanding work, dedication and achievements of law enforcement officers in Ohio. The Civilian Leadership Award recognizes a civilian who works closely with law enforcement, and the Training Award is open to law enforcement officers and civilians alike. For all eight, we need your help in nominating worthy candidates.

The deadline for submissions is May 9, 2025. Please submit nomination forms, supporting documentation and a JPG photo of the nominee electronically to LEAwards@OhioAGO.gov. We also accept them by mail at:

Ohio Law Enforcement Awards Committee
Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission
P.O. Box 309
London, Ohio 43140

If you have any questions about the awards program or nomination forms, please reach out to Susan Boggs at Susan.Boggs@OhioAGO.gov or (740) 845-2353.

Sincerely,
Ohio Law Enforcement Awards Committee

Victoria Allen Civilian Leadership Award

The Victoria Allen Civilian Leadership Award recognizes a civic superhero, a la the award's namesake. Before her untimely death, Victoria Allen advocated for thousands of people in her Youngstown community. She worked with law enforcement to locate missing children, lost or wandering elderly residents, and wanted fugitives. She organized massive community events, including Easter egg hunts, hat and coat drives, and holiday giveaways. She collected information about crimes and helped to calm crowds gathered at scenes of violent crimes. Like Victoria Allen, nominees for this award will epitomize the role of "servant leader," working to unite their neighbors and local law enforcement for the betterment of the community as a whole.

Procedures and Selection Criteria

- Nominations for the Victoria Allen Civilian Leadership Award must be received by May 9, 2025.
- The Law Enforcement Awards Committee, established through the Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission (OPOTC), selects the award winners. The committee consists of representatives of the Ohio Attorney General's Office, Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation, Buckeye State Sheriffs' Association, Ohio Association of Chiefs of Police, Ohio State Highway Patrol, Fraternal Order of Police of Ohio, National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives, FBI and public.
- The information submitted in nominations will be scored on a point system. Nominations must be carefully completed and accompanied by documentation that supports the nominee's civic leadership and involvement, positive impact on the community, and collaboration with law enforcement. Incomplete nomination forms, including those with vague or unexplained supporting documentation, might not receive a high score.
- The awards will be presented during the Attorney General's 2025 Law Enforcement Training Symposium.
- Candidates will be vetted before receiving the award.
- Nominees for the Civilian Leadership Award must be:
 - A civilian who works closely with law enforcement (but is not in law enforcement).
 - Well-known for being active locally and making extraordinary community contributions.
 - Nominated by:
 - A municipal, township, county, state or federal official.
 - A sheriff, chief of police, or member of a law enforcement agency.
 - A retired member of a law enforcement agency.
 - A fraternal law enforcement organization of the state of Ohio.

If you have any questions about the awards program or nomination forms, please contact Susan Boggs at Susan.Boggs@OhioAGO.gov or (740) 845-2353.

Remember: All nomination forms must be received by May 9, 2025.
