- File '911 Audio 9-09-2024 2246 hours - Hossam Hasan' – This was the second dispatch call to Mahmoudi's residence on September 9, 2024. The caller, Hossam Hasan (Sam Hasan, landlord/property owner), claimed that a tenant (Mahmoudi) barricaded himself in the residence with a knife. Mr. Hasan further claimed that other tenants tried to enter the dwelling, but Mahmoudi forced them out and shut the door. Mr. Hasan stated, "...He's threatened everybody around him; Uh, would not let his roommates get in the house." Mr. Hasan stated that one of his employees from a gas station next door went with a tenant to try to get into the dwelling. When the door was opened, the employee (Naier Badawy) observed Mahmoudi armed with a knife. Hasan said the name of the tenant who tried to enter was "Annas." Hasan said the barricaded tenant was "Amin" (Lamine). Mr. Hasan told the call taker that Mahmoudi was alone in the residence. The audio was largely consistent with what was previously observed in the call dispatch notes.

The audio recordings are available for review as attachments to this report.
