FULL TEXT OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Be it Resolved by the People of the State of Ohio, that the Constitution of the State of Ohio be amended by adopting Section 34a of Article II, to read as follows:

Laws shall be enacted prohibiting employers from deducting amounts from an employee's paycheck for use by or on behalf of any organization that supports or opposes candidates for public office, unless the employer first obtains the written consent of the employee for the deduction, which consent shall be obtained annually. No other provision of this Constitution shall impair or limit this power.

PROPOSED SUMMARY

The amendment would require the enactment of laws protecting worker's paychecks from unauthorized deductions by employers for contributions to groups that support or oppose political candidates without the employer obtaining prior written approval of the employee one time per year.
