PROPOSED SUMMARY

This Amendment would add a new section 43 to Article II of the Ohio Constitution, which would provide that, in Ohio:

- A. All laws that apply to the people of Ohio and its political subdivisions shall apply equally to the members and employees of the general assembly.
- B. A person who becomes a former member of the general assembly after January 2, 2017, shall not personally represent another person or entity for compensation before any member or employee of the general assembly for two years after becoming a former member of the general assembly.
- C. The annual compensation of members of the general assembly shall not exceed the annual median household income in Ohio, as periodically ascertained by the state auditor, except that members who serve as officers of the general assembly may receive additional annual compensation up to forty percent of the compensation they receive as members.
- D. Effective January 1, 2018, all records that document the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, operations, or other activities of the general assembly shall be maintained for at least four years in such manner that the records are under the direct control of the State of Ohio.
- E. Taxpayers shall have standing to file a lawsuit to compel compliance with any provision of the Amendment and shall be entitled to recover their costs and reasonable attorney fees if they are successful.
- F. All provisions of the Amendment shall be self-executing and severable, and shall supersede all conflicting laws.

COMMITTEE TO REPRESENT THE PETITIONERS

The following persons are designated as a committee to represent the petitioners in all matters relating to the petition or its circulation:

FULL TEXT OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Title: The Ohio Ethics First Amendment

Be it resolved by the people of the State of Ohio that Article II, Section 43 of the Ohio Constitution be adopted and read as follows:

Article II

§ 43. Raising the Ethical Standards of the General Assembly

(A) All laws that apply to the people of this state and its political subdivisions, including laws requiring the payment of state and local taxes, shall apply equally to the members and employees of the general assembly.

(B) A former member of the general assembly, for a period of two years after becoming a former member of the general assembly, shall not personally represent another person or entity for compensation before any member or employee of the general assembly. This division shall not apply to any person who became a former member on or before January 2, 2017.

(C) The annual fixed compensation that members of the general assembly shall receive for their service as members shall not exceed the annual median household income in Ohio, which shall be ascertained by the auditor of state in January of each even-numbered year, with any adjustment to the compensation limit to take effect the following January 1. Members may receive additional annual fixed compensation for their service as officers of the general assembly, which shall not exceed forty percent of the annual fixed compensation for their service as members.

(D) All records, including electronic records, which serve to document the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, operations, or other activities of the general assembly, shall be maintained in a manner such that the records are under the direct control of the State of Ohio. All such records shall be maintained for at least four years after their creation. This division shall take effect on January 1, 2018.

(E) Any taxpayer or class of taxpayers shall have standing to file a lawsuit for equitable relief to compel compliance with any provision of this section and, if successful, shall be entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney fees.

(F) All provisions of this section shall be self-executing and severable, and shall supersede all conflicting state and local laws.
