Kuba advised that on the day of the incident she was working in the deli area and she heard gunshots, followed by Annette Wooddell Wooddell) running through the deli area screaming what Kuba thought was, "Fire!". Kuba stated that Wooddell told Kuba to get into the cooler area, and they and other employees stayed in the cooler and blocked the cooler doors. Kuba said that once they were all in the cooler, Wooddell said that Todd was at the store with a gun trying to shoot them, and Dylan Wooddell said that Todd had tried to shoot him in the parking lot. Kuba did hear five or six gunshots after they hid in the cooler, which she assumed was SPD. Shortly after, SPD officers came to the cooler and told them all that it was safe to exit the cooler.
