Narrative:

On Sunday, March 16, 2025, at 0528 hours, Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) Special Agent (SA) Eric Lehnhart (SA Lehnhart) interviewed Terrance J. Conway (Conway), relative to the officer-involved critical incident which took place on Sunday, March 16, 2025. The interview took place at the Ravenna Police Department, 220 South Way, Ravenna, Ohio 44266. The purpose of the interview was to obtain all relevant information about the incident known or observed by this individual.

Terrance Conway (Conway) stated that he was watching television at Becky Clark's (Clark) apartment when he heard a "soft" knock at the door. As he was expecting James Graham (Graham), another one of Clark's friends, he went to the door and opened it. As the door opened, Conway was surprised to find a light skinned black male standing in the doorway pointing a gun in his direction.

The subject forced his way into the apartment and eventually sat down on the floor behind a chair in the living area of the apartment. Conway continued to state that the subject said very little over the ninety (90) minutes he was in the apartment and eventually fell asleep on the floor. Conway was able to call 911, but during his explanation of the events, the subject began to wake up. Conway hung up on the dispatchers and after a few seconds was able to reconnect with them.

Once Ravenna police officers arrived, they opened the door to the apartment to find Conway and the subject. Conway recalled officers giving commands to the subject to not touch the gun that was beside him. However, the subject grabbed Conway and began to force him out of the apartment. Conway stated that as they began to enter the hallway, he was able to push off and away from the subject and hurried back into the apartment. Conway recalled seeing the subject point the gun he had towards an officer who was near the laundry room and heard a shot which he believed was from the subject's weapon.
