RE: Report SGH 1470-13 suicide attempt

Dear Sheriff Brenneman:

I would like to bring to your attention an outstanding job done by one our newest deputies, [REDACTED]. On June 8, 2013, Deputy Rinker and I were dispatched to 8343 St. Rt. 314 on a shooting call. The caller was quite emotional and it was very difficult for our dispatcher, Emily Woodmansee, to obtain any information from her about the condition or circumstances of the call.

Because of this, Deputy [REDACTED] and I proceeded to the scene with extreme caution. We arrived on scene and found the victim, Dale Huntington, laying in the backyard. After we determined that he was no longer in possession of the gun, Deputy [REDACTED] began first responder life saving techniques until medical personnel could arrive on scene. Because of his actions, Mr. Huntington was alive and talking to medical personnel until they arrived at the hospital.

Although Mr. Huntington eventually expired from his gunshot wound, Deputy [REDACTED] was instrumental in assisting squad personnel on scene. He remained calm and showed great professionalism in dealing with the scene and the family. He is an outstanding addition to our staff.

Sincerely,

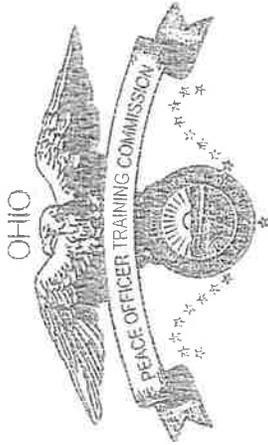

A handwritten signature in cursive that reads "SHall / 988".

Sgt. Stoney Hall
B Shift Supervisor
