

009319

A close-up photograph of a red plastic fastener, possibly a zipper pull or a piece of luggage hardware, attached to a black leather surface. The fastener has a rectangular base with the number '009319' printed in white. It is connected to a black metal zipper pull. The leather is dark and has a slight sheen. In the bottom right corner, a portion of a black, textured rubber sole is visible.
