- ✓ Two-day course presented by the OTOA
- ✓ Good for 16 CPT credit hours
- ✓ AGO grant reimbursement available for cost of course

Seven training sessions will be presented across the state through June 2023, with 24 spots available per session. The dates and locations:

- April 10-11: Dayton/Montgomery County
- April 12-13: Youngstown/Mahoning County
- April 19-20: Delaware/Columbus
- April 24-25: Westlake/Cleveland
- May 8-9: Toledo
- May 19-20: Circleville/Pickaway County
- June 20-21: Hamilton/Cincinnati

The training costs $600 per peace officer/trooper, to be paid by the home agency of the peace officer/trooper. Every officer/trooper who completes the course can apply for a grant reimbursement of the full cost through the office of Ohio Attorney General Dave Yost.

The 16 CPT credit hours can be applied in one of two ways:

- 16 hours of general CPT credit
- 3 hours of school-threat safety training and 13 hours of general CPT credit
