Cleveland Heights, Ohio 44121

Video-Embedded Timestamp	8/29/2024 23:34:05
Activity/Notes	This is the last frame of the video.

The video began as Officer Dugan exited his patrol vehicle carrying a rifle. Officer Dugan walked down Yellowstone Road on foot towards the subject's home. Officer Dugan walked across a neighboring yard and approached the subject's home from the rear. As Officer Dugan reached the rear open garage of the subject's home, Officers Perez and Franklin were visible standing at the northeast corner of the garage.

Frame	1,898
Video-Embedded Timestamp	8/29/2024 22:10:55
Activity/Notes	Officer Dugan began to make the statement, "Someone's coming out the back door."

After Officer Dugan made the above noted statement, a sound consistent with the man door leading from the garage into the home being opened was heard. A male voice seeming to come from inside the home stated "Whoa, whoa, whoa" immediately after the door was seemingly opened. Officer Dugan yelled out, "Hey, come out with your hands, come out with your hands up." Officer Dugan next stated, "He went back inside when he saw officers." Officer Dugan then continued to provide watch on the corner of the garage. From that position, Officer Dugan yelled into the home, "Christian, can you come out with your hands up?"

Around the 5,060th frame or 5:37 mark of the recording, a voice coming from inside the home, believed to be the subject's, could be heard saying, "I can't do this! I can't do this!" A second voice believed to be the subject's father interrupted, and the two were heard briefly arguing, with the second voice saying "Don't shoot me. You want to shoot me? You want to shoot your daddy?" The argument between the two men continued inside but was generally too muffled to discern specifically what was being said.

Woda, who lived in the home directly north of the subject's residence, where the subject expired, told the detective she did not see the shooting occur. Woda did report hearing yelling outside the home. Woda stated at the 1:07:29 mark of the recording she heard, "What, I think one or two shots that maybe might have been his then, and then we heard probably your shots." Officer Dugan then provided Woda with a written statement form and requested that she fill out the form with what she heard and what her daughter told her. Woda then requested Officer Dugan fill out the form for her and reported what she heard. Woda stated she was inside her home and heard some shouting outside. Woda reported it was not unusual to hear loud voices coming from the neighbor's home, so she did not pay special attention to what was happening. Woda then heard one or two pops, that she then thought were gunshots fired by the subject. Woda stated she knew the subject had a gun in the past. The detective asked Woda if she knew the difference in the sound of a rifle and pistol firing. Woda stated she did not. Woda did say the first two apparent gunshots she heard were distinct from the following gunshots she heard. Woda described hearing, "pop, pop, and then the burst." When asked if she heard anything that sounded like a gunshot earlier in the night, prior to police arrival, Woda originally said no then said yes. Woda described thinking at the time she heard a grill fall over or something like that rather than a gunshot.

Woda, who was upstairs at the time of the officer-involved shooting yelled for her daughter on the first floor to come upstairs after hearing the group of gunshots. Her daughter yelled back that she couldn't as she was lying on the floor.

Woda then reviewed and added information to the witness statement form completed by Officer Dugan at her request. Woda told Officer Dugan she did not believe she would allow her daughter to be interviewed by police and Woda herself would talk to her daughter and let police know if she saw anything related to the shooting.
