911 Calls:

A total of four (4) 911 emergency calls were received related to this incident. Upon review of these audio recordings, the following was noted:

- 2025-10-12_03.23.10_Ch91118623.wav: Caller reported his location near Barnes & Noble on High Street and stated, "There's these kids that they walked past our apartment, we were sitting outside and they snatched my friend's gold chain and punched him, and then now they're terrorizing some girl on the corner - she's crying right on High Street." Caller provided a physical description of the subjects as "two dark-skinned kids - Black kids, and one white kid," and stated one was wearing a black hooded sweatshirt and another wearing a gray hooded sweatshirt with the hood pulled up. Caller reported the subjects had punched two males. Caller stated the subjects were still in front of Barnes & Noble. Caller then stated the subjects were walking south on High Street. Caller was unsure if any of the subjects had weapons. Caller reported they saw the subjects running into a nearby alley and that there was a police cruiser nearby.
- 2025-10-12_03.37.16_Ch91118698.wav: Caller reported her address to be 1436 ½ High Street and hearing "a bunch of gunshots and screaming." Caller estimated hearing five to six gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. Caller reported hearing police sirens while speaking to the 911 dispatcher and stated she did not need to speak to a police officer.
- 2025-10-12_07.40.57_Ch91119610.wav: Caller identified herself as Rebecca Suttles (Suttles) and said she believed her grandson, Tashawn Davis (Davis), had been "shot downtown." Suttles indicated someone had seen Davis's vehicle in a news video clip and that there was "an interaction with the police." Suttles provided her phone number as [REDACTED]. Suttles also stated, "They said that there was just an interaction and maybe [Davis] had been shot and he's dead." Suttles identified herself as Davis's grandmother.
- 2025-10-12_11.49.57_Ch91121523.wav: Female caller told the 911 dispatcher she wanted to report a missing person and identified herself as the stepmother of Davis. Caller stated she had not seen Davis since the previous day. Caller provided a physical description of Davis. Caller reported Davis and her son went to "OSU" together the previous night. Caller said someone had told her son that Davis had been shot and that Davis's phone was pinging in the downtown Columbus area. Caller also reported Davis's car had been found in the area with the windows down and that the car was filled with "beer bottles and alcohol." Caller reported her son said Davis's phone was pinging at the "crime scene." Caller indicated she had been told at approximately 0400 hours that morning that Davis had been shot. Caller reported Davis is known to drink alcohol and "smokes weed." Dispatcher asked if Davis was known to carry weapons, to which caller replied with the following statement:

"Well this is the story that my son is saying; his story is...my stepson (Davis) was at the bar last night and he was acting crazy. Said that he had a fake 'BB' gun, like a fake sort of gun, at the bar last night and that he was pulling it out talking about he was gonna shoot the place up...my son just said that he was just like not himself, and that he was trying to fight a female."

Caller indicated that her son left Davis due to his behavior. Caller reported Davis had told her son that he was in possession of a "fake gun" and stated, "He kept showing it as if it was real." Caller said Davis's father was on the line and identified him as Shawn Lynn. Caller did not identify herself by name.

SA Douglass documented the communications believed to be relevant to the incident. Dispatch radio traffic and emergency call documentation received from CPD are attached to this report. Audio recordings of dispatch radio traffic and 911 calls are stored electronically via Axon/Evidence.com, please refer to the attachments and recordings for further details. The records and recordings received were attached to this investigative report. Please refer to the attachments for further details.
