

The first of the above mentioned bonds is executed pursuant to the provisions of sections 1182-2 and 1182-3, General Code, which provide so far as pertinent as follows:

"Sec. 1182-2. The director may appoint additional clerks and stenographers, and such other engineers, inspectors and other employes within the limits of the appropriation as he may deem necessary to fully carry out the provisions of this act. * * *"

"Sec. 1182-3. Each employe or appointee under the provisions of this act in cases other than where the amount of the bond is herein fixed, may be required to give bond in such sum as the director may determine. All bonds herein provided for shall be conditioned upon the faithful discharge of the duties of their respective positions, and such bonds * * * shall be approved as to the sufficiency of the sureties by the directors, and as to legality and form by the attorney general, and be deposited with the secretary of state. * * *"

The other bond is executed pursuant to the provisions of section 1183, General Code, which provides in part:

"* * * Such resident district deputy directors shall * * * give bond in the sum of five thousand dollars. * * *"

Finding said bonds to be proper legal form, in accordance with the foregoing statutory provisions, I hereby approve same, and am returning them to you herewith.

Respectfully,

JOHN W. BRICKER,
Attorney General.
