They've bought houses for their moms, college funds for their nieces and nephews, ran their own hunger drives, toys for needy kids drives, and donate regularly to the Salvation Army.

They did all that because they felt it was only right. They did all that without media coverage.

Update: Liberty Police identified suspect shot in alleged stolen vehicle investigation

31-year-old Jason A. Cain was transported by the Liberty Fire Department to the hospital, where he is currently in critical condition.

18 hrs 46 mins ago

By Billy-Jack Colon

On Monday, Liberty Police were involved in a shooting in the parking lot of Belmont Plaza at 3:30 p.m. The suspect had allegedly stolen a vehicle before the police boxed the suspect in. Police are now giving an update on the shooting.

According to the media release, Liberty Township Police Officers responded to a notification from the Flock License Plate Reader system regarding a stolen vehicle.

Officers located the suspect vehicle, which was found parked and occupied in the lot of Harbor Freight.

Officers block the vehicle in with the police cars, in an effort to prevent a potential pursuit.

The release stated officers exited their vehicles and issued commands for the driver — identified as 31-year-old Jason A. Cain — to surrender.

The release said Cain ignored the officers' commands and instead began ramming the police vehicles, placing officers and bystanders in immediate danger.

One officer opened fire on the suspect, striking Cain.

According to officers, Cain's vehicle accelerated the car at high rate of speed, crashing through the front wall of the Harbor Freight building before coming to a stop.

Officers ordered a female passenger from the vehicle and took her in for questioning.

Cain was transported by the Liberty Fire Department to the hospital, where he is currently in critical condition.

The officer who shot Cain has been placed on paid administrative leave pending an internal investigation into the incident.

The Bureau of Criminal Investigation has also been contacted and will handle the investigation.

Driver shot by Liberty police ID'd

Officers were investigating stolen vehicle

LIBERTY — An officer has been placed on paid administrative leave after an investigation into a stolen vehicle resulted in an officer-related shooting Monday afternoon.

Jason Cain, 31, was shot by a Liberty officer after Liberty police Chief Toby Meloro said he began ramming police vehicles after they boxed him in because the SUV he was driving was reported stolen. The shooting happened in front of Harbor Freight in the Belmont Plaza at the corner of Belmont Avenue and Goldie Road around 3 p.m.

Liberty police were notified of the stolen vehicle in their jurisdiction by a Flock license plate camera system, Meloro said. The vehicle was found parked with Cain in the driver's seat in the store parking lot and Liberty police surrounded the Jeep to prevent a potential pursuit, according to a police report.

The report states officers exited their vehicles and commanded Cain to surrender peacefully, which he ignored, and instead began ramming police vehicles. An officer then fired shots at Cain, and he accelerated the vehicle through the front wall of Harbor Freight before stopping.

Officers ordered a female passenger out of the vehicle and transported her to the department for questioning. Cain was provided aid at the scene and was transported to St. Elizabeth Youngstown Hospital, where he is in critical condition, according to Meloro.

The unnamed officer was placed on administrative leave pending an internal investigation per standard protocol.

The report states the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation was asked to conduct an investigation into the shooting.
