To Whom It Concerns:

CIOX has provided to you protected health information that may contain information that falls under the 42 C.F.R. Part 2. The federal rules prohibit you from making any further disclosure of information in this record that identifies a patient as having or having had a substance use disorder either directly, by reference to publically available information, or through verification of such identification by another person unless further disclosure is expressly permitted by written consent of the individual whose information is being disclosed or as otherwise permitted by 42 CFR part 2. A general authorization for the release of medical or other information is NOT sufficient for this purpose (see 42 CFR §2.31). The federal rules restrict any use of the information to investigate or prosecute with regard to a crime any patient with a substance use disorder, except as provided at 42 CFR §§ 2.112(c)(5) and 2.65.

If the enclosed record pertains to HIV/AIDs, it has been disclosed to you from records whose confidentiality is protected by federal and perhaps, state law, which prohibits you from making any further disclosure of such information without the specific consent of the person to whom such information pertains or as otherwise permitted by state law. A general authorization for this release of health or other information is not sufficient for this purpose.

If the information requested is from a facility located within the Washington State area then this information will fall under the RCW 70.02.300 which states that this information has been disclosed to you from records who confidentiality may be protected by state law. State law prohibits you from making any further disclosure of it without the specific written authorization of the person to whom it pertains, or as otherwise permitted by state law. A general authorization for the release of this protected information is not sufficient for this purpose.
