Narrative:

On July 12, 2022, Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) was requested by the Clearcreek Township Police Department in Warren County, Ohio, to investigate the Officer-Involved Critical Incident that occurred at approximately 2040 hours on July 12, 2022 at 5945 N. State Route 48, Clearcreek Township, Ohio. The Clearcreek Township police officers were requested by Sylvia Norris to respond to a domestic violence situation at her residence between her and her husband, Mark Evers. While officers were on scene investigating the domestic violence situation at 5945 N. State Route 48, the Officer-Involved Critical Incident occurred.

Special Agent Douglas Eveslage authored a search warrant for the property, buildings, and vehicles located at 5945 N. State Route 48, Clearcreek Township, Ohio. Warren County Common Pleas Honorary Judge Donald E. Oda II signed authorizing the execution of this search warrant at approximately 2335 hours on July 12, 2022.

On July 13, 2022, SA Eveslage returned the executed search warrant and inventory to the Warren County Clerk of Courts and Judge Oda authorized the search warrant and inventory be filed under seal due to the continuing nature of the investigation.

See attached search warrant, motion and order to seal, and inventory for more details.
